Attention to 2010 Scheme students:

Irrespective of the critical subject (dead line subject) or/and failed in more than 4 subjects all BE 2010 Scheme students (i) who have completed their 4th sem course are given an opportunity to attend the 2010 Scheme 5th sem parallel classes and (ii) those who have completed their 6th sem course are given opportunity to attend the 7th sem 2010 scheme classes.

Further, (i) those who join now for 5th sem parallel classes are allowed to complete their 6th sem and again the 7th and 8th sem courses in the next year in 2010 scheme only, where parallel classes will be conducted for 2010 scheme in the next year for 7th and 8th sem and (ii) those who join for the 2010 7th sem course now, are allowed to complete their 8th sem course also in 2010 scheme.

With the above provision, the students of 5th and 7th 2010 scheme can complete their course up to 8th sem without any hindrance of the deadlines/more than 4 subjects back log. But, they will be allowed to take the examination of 5th and 7th sem, only when they are eligible without any deadlines/back log of more than 4 subjects, as per the prevailing VTU eligibility criteria. That is, eligibility criteria is relaxed one time to complete the course only, but not to take up the examinations.

Hence, all 2010 scheme students who are waiting for eligibility can now join the 5th sem and 7th sem 2010 courses. Last date to register in the college is 18th Sep' 2017. Also, bring this to the notice of all your friends.

Further, meeting is arranged on 20th Sep' 2017 at Seminar Hall, JNNCE at 12.00 p m. Those students who require clarifications or more details can attend this meeting.
